2. Upon receipt of the reference, it was registered as IT/21/2021 and registered AD notices were issued to both the parties. Pursuant to service of notices, both the Parties filed an application for Award in terms of settlement along with the terms of settlement at Exhibit 4 Colly stating that they have arrived at a settlement under Section 12(3) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and prayed that an award be passed in terms of said settlement dated 10-03-2022. The above application has been signed by representative of Party I, Shri Bablo C. Sawant, President, and Shri Subhash Naik Jorge, Representative of the Party I Union, so also the representative of Party II, Shri Prakash K. Naik, Head

HR and Adv. Ms. Nemesia on behalf of Party II. An amicable settlement was arrived between both the Parties on the following terms and conditions.

CHAPTER-I

It is agreed by and between the parties that:

1. Coverage: The provisions of this settlement shall be applicable to all permanent workmen who are on the rolls of the Company and the members of AWU during the period of this settlement for the period they served the Company.

2. Purpose and Intent: It is known that the Automobile Industry worldwide and the Company in particular, is going through critical and challenging phase. The dwindling export sales and invariable domestic sales have put an adverse impact on the turnover of the Company. Under such circumstances, it is very important that the organization reacts quickly and positively to the market challenges and succeed through the cut throat commercial competition.

It shall be the efforts that this settlement shall regain the viability and competitiveness. It must reinforce the long term sustainability and prosperity though business growth.

This will be achieved through deliberate and significant improvements in:

- . Resource productivity.
- . Operational flexibility.
- . Process and product quality.
- . Cost effectiveness.
- . Performance oriented work culture.

ACGL faces the challenges of rising conversion cost, its viability and rising standards of quality.

It shall be the efforts of each and every workman of the Company to commit towards the commercial, corporate and social growth of the Company.

3. Rights and Responsibilities of the Parties:

A. The Company and the Union agree to resolve all problems/disputes/conflicts by peaceful mutual negotiations. Should such negotiations fail for any reason, both the parties shall seek the assistance of legal machinery proved under the law.

B. The Union agrees to co-operate with ACGL and support all the processes for improving the productivity and discipline by the workmen on the shops and on the premises of ACGL.

C. The Company recognizes the following rights of the Union:

The Union shall have exclusive right to represent the Workmen who are their members and be their sole collective bargaining agent.

D. The Union recognizes the following rights of the Company:

1. The Company shall be entitled to set up standards for job (time standards & productivity standards) and to decide upon recruitment, selection, promotion, increments, deployments, allotments of shifts, working hours, timing of shifts, holidays, weekly off and transfer of workmen from one job, section, departments or divisions to another irrespective of trades. The Union shall not object to such changes unless there are compelling reasons for such objections which shall be resolved by mutual discussions.

2. In particular circumstances of business exigencies, if there is a fall in business and the Management is not in a position to provide work to certain section of workmen, in such events first the flexible/contractors' workforce shall be discontinued before the workmen are asked to proceed on leave.

In the event any workmen do not have any leave to their credit the Management shall grant them a prospective leave. The above clause shall be implemented by the Management not exceeding three times in a year and not more than five days of duration at a time.

CHAPTER II

1. Productivity: Wage Settlement is a process of "Give and Take", the Union and workmen duly realize that in return for a substantial wage rise given by the Company, the workmen have to share additional obligations and responsibilities which would not only promote the capacity of the Company to absorb the financial burden caused by the wage rise but also maintain its competitive status in the industry at healthy levels.

1. During period of settlement the Management expects permanent associates to produce average three buses per day and union on behalf of permanent associates will assure that they will support the management in implementing the same with suitable deployment of all Associates. At present, all associates contribute in existing production and support services. It is also understood that achieving production is a collective responsibility of management and union and the union will fully contribute their share in maximizing the same.

2. It is agreed by the Union that each workman shall strive to maintain minimum 80% productivity during the period of Settlement. The Company will fix the base production norms for each work station/assembly lines based on the standard process cycle time. During the time study Union Representative will be present. Each workmen will be required to produce as per the pre-determined norms. The individual case of workman who is failing to achieve the above production, norms will be discussed with the Union. Even after Union's involvement, if the concerned workman fails to achieve the stipulated production norms, the Management will take necessary disciplinary action.

3. It is accepted by the parties that the above improvement in productivity will be in addition to the improvement in productivity achieved through operational improvement, Kaizen initiatives, waste elimination and minimizing non-value adding activities. All workmen shall commit to deliver the output as per standard established from time to time in both Kaizen and non-Kaizen areas to achieve higher productivity. Further, as agreed in the last agreement the National Productivity Council has conducted study for productivity assessment and Union will implement recommendations made by the National Productivity Council.

CHAPTER III

Wages/Allowances/Leave/Discipline

1. Workmen shall be given an average composite wage package (including HRA and all the demanded allowances, unless otherwise separately provided in this settlement) of Rs. 5,500/- (Rupees five thousand five hundred only). This wage increment will be given as a total increment i.e. Total Cost to the company (CTC).

a) Basic Wage: Workmen shall be given a rise of Rs. 3,300/- (Rupees three thousand three hundred only) per month in their basic wage with effect from 1st April, 2018.

The rise in basic wage per month as above will be added to the basic wage as on 1st April, 2018 of the respective workman and the amount to arrive at applicable fitment, would be the basic wage of workman in the company's wage scale.

b) House Rent Allowance: Effective from 1st April, 2018, the House Rent Allowance payable to the eligible workman shall be Rs. 4,571/- (Four thousand five hundred and seventy one only) per month a rise of Rs. 1123/- (One thousand one hundred twenty three only) per month.

c) Indirect Components: Indirect components from 32.65% i.e. Rs. 1,077/- (15% Superannuation, 12% PF and 5.65% Gratuity) of basic wage increase in the present settlement.

2. As per Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 all bargainable employees are not in the preview of the said Bonus Act since the maximum salary of bargainable employees is more than the Rs. 21,000/- (Rupees twenty one thousand) which is maximum limit specified in the Bonus Act. However as good gesture management shall pay minimum bonus of 8.33% and max. Bonus as decided by the management. The ceiling on salary of Rs. 21,000/- mentioned in the Act for eligibility may be ignored. For the purpose of Bonus Computation, the salary shall be considered as Rs. 7,000/- even if it exceeds Rs. 7,000/-. The Management shall at its sole discretion, pay an additional amount as ex-gratia based on the financial performance of the year.

3. In Sandwich leave a Sunday or holiday intervening during leave of any kind/type shall be treated as leave in computing the number of days of leave availed. Whereas sandwich leave have exception of not treating a Sunday or a holiday intervening during leave or any kind increased to 06 occasions in a year.

4. The Union expressly agrees that any illegal and unjustifiable stoppage will lead to disciplinary action.

5. It is accepted by both the parties that in case of "BAND" (all India or Goa) it will be the personal responsibility of the employees to reach the factory by their own arrangements within the shift timing or else the concerned employees will have to apply for leave.

CHAPTER-IV

Motivational and other Beneficial Schemes:

1. The Management acknowledges and understands the importance of promoting education amongst the employee's children. A scholarship scheme will be implemented wherein employee's meritorious children of 10th & 12th standards will be rewarded by the Company.

2. Safety at the work place is very importance concern. The management urges the workmen and it is hereby agreed by the Union that employees will abide the safety norms and take all precaution to avoid the possible accidents. To promote the safety concern, the management shall implement "Safety Awards" scheme wherein all the employees will be presented as cash prize award of Rs. 250/- for not meeting with a single accident/injury during the given financial year.

3. The Management states that as and when any vacancy arises in various plants of the company, subject to merits, preference will be given to the suitable direct blood relatives of the employees.

4. It is decided by the Management to extend ambulance facility whereby employee and spouse, children and parents will be provided ambulance facility for critical and emergency hospitalization from home to hospital on advance intimation. A nominal fees of Rs. 20/- will be charged for availing this facility.

5. Medical insurances scheme. The Management of the Company and the Union agree that the company will set aside Rs. 2000/- (Rupees two thousand only) per workmen per annum towards the premium for medical insurance scheme. Any contribution towards medical insurance premium exceeding company's contribution of Rs. 2000/- will be borne by the employee.

6. Advance for Emergency Hospitalization. A workman will be eligible for an advance towards emergency hospitalization expenditure for an amount not exceeding Rs. 75,000/- (Rupees seventy five thousand only) once during the tenure of service. The workman will have to produce documents substantiating the expenditure. The amount shall be recovered in 24 equal installments with 10% rate of interest. The compensation as and when received under insurance policy shall be adjusted against the advance.

7. If any workmen exhausted his/her sick and casual leave allocated to him/her then he/she can adjust one day leave at two occasions from his privilege leave allocated to him/her.

8. Workmen can avail privilege leave for maximum 7 occasions (Privilege leave shall be taken minimum three days) excluding one day privilege leave mentioned in above clause (Clause No. 7).

9. Existing bank working of one hour can be clubbed with lunch timing either before lunch or after lunch. Thus total bank work timing including lunch time will be one hour thirty minutes. Workmen after returning from bank work shall directly resume on workstation. These benefits will be allowed for maximum 10 workmen per day. Bank working benefit will be allowed maximum two times a month for each workman.

10. Workman who complete 25 years of service with good conduct will be awarded Rs. 5,000/- (Rupees Five thousand only).
